Foreword of the Chairman of the Board of Directors

Rudolf Hanták

Dear shareholders, business partners and colleagues,

2005 represents a year of stabilization within the company history. After the dynamic growth of the first half of this decade, in 2005 the growth of turnover and market share as well as other factors slowed down. It is the result of the development on the Czech factoring market that has grown into a full-scale and mature competitive environment in the last two years. It is a market that has been constantly seeing the entrance of new players and its conditions have become more and more demanding.

In view of these circumstances we see our ability to maintain the leading position and the biggest market share among members of the Association of Factoring Companies in the Czech Republic representing the Czech market as an important result and we will strive to maintain it for the periods to come.

Last year our efforts were focused on selected stabilization and development procedures in the area of trade and business cooperation with our sole shareholder as well as other members of our financial group in this country and in other countries of Central and Eastern Europe. Last year our company had to react to a new market situation, slowdown of the dynamics of local factoring market, more demanding competitive environment, price and margin pressure but also growing risks related to business in this segment of financial services. We feel to be entitled to say that most, if not all, of our objectives have been met even in these difficult conditions.

We see the future of our company primarily in use of synergies provided to us by our membership in the strong Financial group Erste Bank, further development of international activities and upgrade of our business network. Versatile use of new information technologies will continue to be one of the main directions of our development aimed at upgrading of services provided to our clients, reducing costs, improving risk management and optimizing the client portfolio. We still expect to open new market segments and introduce new products in order to provide our clients with high level of quality and satisfaction with our services.

I would like to express my gratitude to our business partners, representatives of our sole shareholder and other co-workers within the financial group as well as employees that had arranged for smooth mutual cooperation and positive results, and make the best wishes for their professional and personal life.

Company Management Report

Compared to previous years of dynamic growth, year 2005 was a period of stabilization for Factoring České spořitelny. While in the first half of the new millennium the overall market situation in the Czech Republic was significantly impacted by prevailingly positive trends both on the microeconomic and macroeconomic levels, last year saw the expected trends of the Czech factoring market in achieving maturity and fully competitive environment. It resulted in a slowdown of the overall market dynamics that affected all key players including our company.

Continuance of the low level of interest rates, slowdown of the growth of local market, entrance of new players to the local, ever more demanding market, permanent pressure on prices and margins and the growing new risks related to business in this segment of financial services were the factors that led to slowdown of the growth of turnover, market share and other indicators of the business and economic development of the company.

The result was that the current very dynamic development of business and economic parameters and the leading position in the Czech market were replaced by a period of slowdown of the development dynamics. In reaction to the new situation the company management focused on maintaining the strong position in the market and stabilizing the overall situation inside and outside the company. The strategy of the company management in these demanding conditions aimed at implementation of stabilization measures with the aim of maintaining of the achieved position complemented with possible efforts in improving areas that had proved to have a growth potential.

In these circumstances the company management sees the ability to maintain the leading position in the Czech market and the biggest market share among members of the Association of Factoring Companies in the Czech Republic in 2005 as a very important and positive result.

In collaboration with the parent bank the company management continued in using tools that had previously proved to be a very important carrier of dynamics of business activities. The management added new ways enabling achievement of higher flexibility in adjusting to the new market situation.

Business cooperation with the sales network of the bank was complemented with activation of additional distribution channels and new marketing activities. The use of CRM system with software support as a tool and method of systematic work, pro-active marketing and outsourcing of some business activities brought a number of good results. The focus on use of synergies within ERSTE BANK group and membership in the international network of FCI made it possible to dynamically develop business cooperation in the sphere of international factoring (especially import factoring).

Risk management focused primarily on identifying new risk areas, creating adequate tools of prevention and elimination of negative impacts. Last year the company continued in implementing measures related to gradual performance of objectives arising from the consolidated risk management within the Financial group of Česká spořitelna in connection with introduction of the NBCA (Basel 2) project in the Czech banking system that is to be fully applied from 2007.

Operation management mainly focused on the quality of services provided to clients of the company as the main bearer of added value contained in the company products. Quality, velocity, continuity of the running business and complexity of the rendered services, creation of personal relationships with clients, use of the latest technologies in e-business were the main tools to assist in performing the stabilization program of the company in this area. Last year the operation department was restructured with the objective of improving efficiency of work, communication with clients and their customers, improving work with the entire portfolio and reducing the company risks.

In 2005, the area of financial management of the company represented an important contribution to stabilization of the overall run of the company and its economics. Ensuring continuity of approach to the use of financial resources of the company and their optimization implemented through increased cooperation with the parent bank significantly contributed to stable performance and quality of the rendered services. Introduction of cost optimization elements, elimination of exchange rate risks with the aim of reducing exchange rate losses, improved controlling and reporting became the key instruments of effective financial management.

The company management sees information technologies as one of the main directions of development leading to generation of added value for clients, acceleration of the service processes, reduction of costs and improvement of risk management and client portfolio. In 2005, the company made some important upgrade investments in this area and started preparation for development of upgraded software meeting the requirements of a modern process-oriented tool able to ensure fast and flawless service of the company clients. The in-house development of software tools is an important component of the group strategy of knowledge management within the gradually developing group of factoring companies in ERSTE BANK financial group in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe.

It is the strategy of development of factoring companies in the countries of the region that is the important component of the overall stabilization strategy. Its objective is gradual generation of a network of mutually collaborating business entities using the synergies given by international cooperation and involvement in a strong financial group. The project of the new company in Croatia commenced in 2005 is another step of implementation of this strategic line that should significantly contribute to more efficient use of human and material resources invested in development and ensure a new dimension of development of business and investment activities of Factoring České spořitelny in the periods to come.

The results of 2005 give ground to assume that even in more demanding conditions of the local market the company is likely to maintain its position within the territory of the Czech Republic and through a network of daughter and sister companies it will gradually build a new position within the entire region of Central Europe.

The accounting records are maintained in compliance with general accounting principles, specifically the historical cost valuation basis, the accruals principle, the prudence concept and the going concern assumption.

These financial statements are presented in thousands of Czech crowns ("CZK").

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

3.1 Tangible and Intangible Fixed Assets

Valuation

Tangible fixed assets include assets with an acquisition cost greater than CZK 40,000 on an individual basis and an estimated useful life greater than one year.

Intangible fixed assets include assets with an acquisition cost greater than CZK 60,000 on an individual basis and an estimated useful life greater than one year.

Purchased tangible and intangible fixed assets are valued at acquisition cost which comprises the purchase price and incidental acquisition costs (custom duties, assembly, freight, etc.).

Tangible and intangible fixed assets with a useful life exceeding one year and an acquisition cost between CZK 20,000 and 40,000 or CZK 60,000, respectively, are depreciated/amortised over a period of two years from the moment when they are put into use.

Assets with an acquisition cost of CZK 20,000 or less are not treated as tangible and intangible assets and are charged directly to expenses.

The cost of fixed asset improvements exceeding CZK 40,000 in total for individual assets over the period increases the acquisition cost of the related fixed asset.

Depreciation for Accounting Purposes

Depreciation of fixed assets is recorded on a straight-line basis over the depreciation periods indicated below.

Category of assets	Depreciation period in years
Leasehold improvement of a leased building	8
Machinery and equipment	3 or 5
Vehicles	4
Software	3
Other	12

The depreciation period in years is established pursuant to the estimated useful life of the fixed assets.

3.2 Non-Current Financial Assets

Valuation

Securities and equity investments are carried at cost upon acquisition. The cost of securities or equity investments includes direct costs of acquisition, such as fees and commissions paid to brokers, advisors and stock exchanges. At the date of acquisition of the securities and equity investments, the Company categorises these non-current financial assets based on their underlying characteristics as equity investments or debt securities held to maturity or securities and equity investments available for sale.

As of the balance sheet date, the Company records:

- Equity investments using the value established under the equity method of accounting;
- Debt securities held to maturity at cost increased to reflect interest income (including amortisation of premium or discount, if any);
- Securities and equity investments available for sale at fair value if determinable.

At the balance sheet date, securities and equity investments denominated in a foreign currency are re-translated using the exchange rate of the Czech National Bank prevailing as of that date, and any resulting foreign exchange rate gains or losses are treated as a component of fair value or the value established under the equity method of accounting. If the security or equity investment is not fair valued, the foreign exchange rate gains or losses are recognised as a component of gains or losses arising from the revaluation of assets and liabilities, the only exception being debt securities.

3.3 Receivables

Upon origination, receivables are stated at their nominal value. Doubtful and bad amounts are reduced by the relevant provisions.

The Company accounts for factoring receivables on a "gross" basis. The factoring receivables are posted to assets in the short-term trade receivables account and the related payables to suppliers and the Company's clients, as appropriate, are charged to liabilities in the short-term trade payables account. The short-term receivables account represents the nominal volume of the Company's receivables from end customers.

The prepayments made with respect to the provision of recourse factoring are posted to the short-term prepayments account (a component of the short-term trade receivables line in the financial statements).

Provisioning

In respect of tax non-deductible provisions, the Company continuously applied the methodology adopted in 2003. The aggregate volume of receivables past their due dates by greater than 30 days was provisioned at 25 percent. This coefficient is based on the value of tax non-deductible provisions from previous years, respecting the reasonable estimate and the prudence principle.

The Company recognised a specific tax non-deductible provision in respect of a special instance of fraud uncovered by the Company during 2005.

3.4 Loans

Valuation

Loans are reported at the net book value of the principal. Interest expenses on these loans are included in accruals unless the interest had been paid at the effective date.

The portion of long-term loans maturing within one year from the balance sheet date is included in short-term loans.

3.5 Reserves

Reserves are intended to cover future obligations or expenditure, the nature of which is clearly defined and which are either likely to be incurred or certain to be incurred, but which are uncertain as to the amount or the date on which they will arise.

During the year ended 31 December 2005, the Company established an accounting reserve for payroll costs that relate to the current accounting period (refer to Note 4.7).

3.6 Translation of Foreign Currencies

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies were translated at an annual fixed exchange rate. At the balance sheet date, that is, 31 December 2005, all assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies were translated at the exchange rate of the Czech National Bank effective as of that date, and the translation gains and losses were recorded through the current year's financial income or financial expenses, as appropriate.

During the accounting period, foreign exchange rate differences arising from spot transactions were posted directly to income or expenses, while foreign exchange rate difference arising from swap transactions were recorded to profit or loss only after completion.

At the balance sheet date, the financial investment denominated in a foreign currency was translated using the effective exchange rate promulgated by the Czech National Bank as of that date. Any resulting foreign currency translation differences have been included in the recognised gain or loss arising from the fair value re-measurement

3.7 Derivative Financial Transactions

The Company enters into hedging currency swaps to hedge the currency risk arising from foreign exchange rate fluctuations over the period of financing factoring prepayments denominated in foreign currencies. Assets include factoring prepayments denominated in foreign currencies while liabilities reflect bank loans and overdrafts. All derivative financial transactions concluded during the year were designated as hedges of future cash flows. The Company maintains documentation for hedging derivatives and tests the effectiveness of hedging. The Company's criteria for a derivative instrument to be accounted for as a hedge are as follows:

- At the inception of the hedge, the documentation identifies the hedged item and the hedging instrument, defines the risk that is being hedged and the approach to establishing and documenting whether the hedge is effective, and the hedging relationship is formally documented;
- The hedge is highly effective (that is, within a range of 80 percent to 125 percent);
- The hedge effectiveness can be measured reliably and is assessed on an ongoing basis.

Valuation

Derivative financial instruments are carried at cost at the acquisition date. The cost of derivative financial instruments includes direct costs of acquisition, such as fees and commissions paid to brokers, advisors and stock exchanges.

As of the balance sheet date, financial derivative instruments are accounted for at fair value. The fair value is determined on the basis of a qualified fair valuation of all anticipated cash flows associated with hedging derivatives. As of 31 December 2005, the Company had no open derivative transactions.

Fair value changes in respect of hedging derivatives are recorded as gains or losses from the revaluation of assets and liabilities, reported within other financial expenses or income, as appropriate. The receivable or payable arising from the revaluation of hedging derivatives is reported within other receivables or other payables in the balance sheet.

A cash flow hedge is a hedge of the exposure to variability in cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk associated with a legally enforceable contract, a forecasted future transaction, groups of assets, groups of liabilities, legally enforceable contracts or forecasted future transactions with similar characteristics where the same type and category of risk is the subject of the hedge.

Gains or losses arising over the term of the hedge from changes in fair values of hedging derivatives contracted under cash flow hedging that are attributable to the hedged risks are retained on the balance sheet. The gains or losses are taken to income or expenses in the same period in which the income or expenses associated with the hedged item are recognised. Gains or losses arising from changes in fair values of hedging derivatives contracted under cash flow hedging that are attributable to unhedged risks are recorded to expenses or income from derivative transactions at the measurement date.

3.8 Taxation

3.8.1 Depreciation of Fixed Assets for Tax Purposes

Depreciation of fixed assets for tax purposes is calculated using the accelerated method.

3.8.2 Current Tax Payable

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the reporting period. Taxable profit differs from net profit as reported in the profit and loss account because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other periods and it further excludes items that are never taxable or deductible. The Company's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted by the balance sheet date.

3.8.3 Deferred Taxation

Deferred taxation is calculated from all temporary differences between the accounting and tax values using the income tax rate that is expected to apply in the tax period when the deferred tax liability is settled or the deferred tax asset is realised. The deferred tax asset is recognised only if it is likely to be offset against taxable income.

3.9 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash at hand, cash in bank or term deposits.

3.10 Revenues

The Company recognises its own revenues consisting of factoring charges and interest on funding based on the issued invoices. Other income relates to supplies provided by the credit insurance company. These are recognised based on the insured events list at the moment of the provision of cash proceeds by the insurance company. Revenues are recognised on an accruals basis.

3.11 Use of Estimates

The presentation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management believes that the estimates and assumptions used will not significantly differ from the actual results and outcomes in future accounting periods.

3.12 Year-on-Year Changes in Valuation, Depreciation and Accounting Policies

In the previous period, the Company released a deferred tax asset arising from provisions against client receivables in response to the legislative changes made in 2004. In 2005, this deferred tax asset was re-recognised with a view to the new interpretation and legislative amendments.

3.13 Risk Management

Risks associated with the funding of ceded receivables are mitigated by using the services of insurance companies and by cooperating with partners within the international association of factoring companies (the Company is a member of the FCI association). The Company stresses the importance of diversification of the debt portfolio which allows for the amounts recovered to cover the partial payments made to clients and allow the Company to exercise a lien.

In 2005, the Company was a victim of fraud committed by a client. As a result, the Company set up new measures and working procedures to prevent any similar actions by clients and improve operational risk management.

The Company performs regular assessments of the impact of exchange rate risks and takes appropriate steps on an ongoing basis to balance assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. The lending method in the form of overdraft foreign exchange accounts enables the Company to manage the balancing of foreign exchange assets and liabilities and notably mitigate foreign exchange risks.

With regard to interest rate risk, the Company uses one-month rates both for assets and liabilities.

In the latter half of 2005, the Company decided to replace the original E-sam credit management system by incorporating its features into the HoC product system as the "Riskman" module. Another major investment related to HoC system supporting modules for the monitoring of customer receivables, and software supporting new servers. For the time being, the E-sam system was retained within the ownership of the Company as it will be used in 2006 as a database for launching the new Riskman module.

Amortisation of Intangible Fixed Assets Charged to Expenses

Amortisation of intangible fixed assets was CZK 1,425 thousand (CZK 644 thousand for the year ended 31 December 2004).

Depreciation of Tangible Fixed Assets Charged to Expenses

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets was CZK 2,465 thousand (CZK 2,398 thousand for the year ended 31 December 2004).

4.3 Non-Current Financial Assets

Since late 2002, the Company has held a 10 percent investment in Factoring Slovenskej sporiteľne, a. s., a subsidiary of Slovenská sporiteľňa, a. s. The share capital of the former company is SKK 30 million, and the allocation to the reserve fund amounted to SKK 3 million in compliance with Slovak legislation. As of 31 December 2005, the entity reported unaudited equity of SKK 98,867 thousand. This investment is classified within securities and equity investments available for sale. The cost of the financial investment of the Company thus represents SKK 3,300 thousand which translates to CZK 2,527 thousand. The Company's share of equity is SKK 9,887 thousand, which is equal to CZK 7,570 thousand. This amount represents the best possible estimate of the fair value of the investment.

In 2005, the Company was involved in the establishment of another factoring company within Erste Bank in Croatia. In this respect, an equity investment prepayment of HRK 250 thousand (CZK 984 thousand) was made.

The Company has pledged no assets as collateral.

4.4 Receivables

4.4.1 Short-Term Receivables

CZK thousand	Balance at	31 Dec 2005	Balance at 31 Dec 2004
Short-term trade receivables		5,252,263	5,857,775
- customers		3,345,958	3,359,083

Estimated balances		700	540
Other receivables		4	109
Total		5,256,106	5,858,803

The above receivables principally comprise factoring receivables, which are reported in the balance sheet line "trade receivables", of CZK 5,252,263 thousand (2004: CZK 5,857,775 thousand).

Year-on-year changes in prepayments made are largely attributable to the cessation of financing of a major client's receivables. The line "Customers" includes nominal values, the line "Prepayments made" includes prepayments made for receivables under recourse factoring.

4.4.2 Aging of Trade Receivables

Year CZK thousand	Category	Before due date	Overdue					Total
			0-30 days	31-60 days	61 – 80 days	81–365 days	1 year and greater
2005	_Short-term	4,041,448	751,696	440,671	8,283	41,133	33,767	5,316,998
	Provisions	0	0	25,453	1,140	26,819	11,323	64,735
2004	Short-term	5,272,999	490,502	83,667	29,107	11,116	12,983	5,900,374
	Provisions	0	0	20,620	7 ,1 7 3	2,739	12,067	42,599

The average maturity of receivables from the customers of the Company's factoring clients in 2005 was 54 days. Provisioning is established by a percentage derived from the historical balance of losses and management's experience in respect of the recovery rates of distressed receivables. Given the limited availability of historical data regarding loss percentage rates, the Company was prudent in determining the risk coefficient.

The balance of tax-deductible provisions remained basically unchanged in 2005, amounting to CZK 11,323 thousand. These tax-deductible provisions are recognised against receivables registered for recovery under bankruptcy proceedings ceded to the Company before the effective date of the legislative amendment.

As of 31 December 2005, tax non-deductible provisions amounted to CZK 53,412 thousand (2004: CZK 31,277 thousand). This amount was established in line with the existing global methodology as a 25 percent share of the total volume of receivables overdue by greater than 30 days and increased by a tax non-deductible provision, necessary for the coverage of the problematic recovery of funding of fictive receivables from intentional fraudulent activities of a client.

4.5 Temporary Assets

Temporary assets amount to CZK 2,162 thousand (2004: CZK 3,655 thousand) and primarily comprise deferred expenses arising from fees for bank guarantees and written credit insurance premiums.

4.6 Shareholder's Equity

4.6.1 Share Capital

As of 31 December 2005, the subscribed, paid-up and registered share capital was CZK 84 million and consisted of 280 shares with a nominal value of CZK 300 thousand per share.

The shares are not publicly traded, are registered and carry voting rights.

4.6.2 Distribution of the 2004 Profit

During 2005, the Company's sole shareholder acting in the capacity of the General Meeting approved the utilisation of the 2004 profit of CZK 15,960 thousand to declare dividends to the shareholder of CZK 6,000 thousand, to allocate CZK 796 thousand to the statutory reserve fund and to allocate CZK 519 thousand to the newly established social fund. The balance of the social fund as of the end of 2005 is CZK 29 thousand. The balance of the statutory reserve fund after the addition is CZK 3,605 thousand. The remaining accumulated 2003 and 2004 profit of CZK 14,645 thousand was, following a decision of the sole shareholder, retained in equity.

4.6.3 Gains and Losses Arising from the Revaluation of Assets and Liabilities

The differences of CZK 3,868 thousand (2004: CZK 625 thousand) arising from the revaluation of assets and liabilities represent the difference arising from the re-measurement of non-current financial assets. The revaluation differences were decreased by the relevant deferred tax.

4.7 Reserves

CZK thousand	Other reserves	Total reserves
31 December 2003	10,081	10,081
Addition to reserves	6,589	6,589
Use of reserves	10,081	10,081

Addition to reserves	7,548	7 ,548
Use of reserves	6,589	6,589
31 December 2005	7,548	7,548

In 2005, the Company created a reserve of CZK 7,548 thousand for payroll costs unrealised by the 2005 year-end (the balance of the reserve in 2004: CZK 6,589 thousand).

4.8 Payables

4.8.1 Trade Payables

CZK thousand	Balance at 31 Dec 2005	Balance at 31 Dec 2004
Short-term payables	3,008,569	3,404,043
- Suppliers	2,975,133	3,328,410
- Advances received	33,436	75,633
Payables to employees	1,051	813
Payables arising from social security and health insurance	640	559
State – tax payables and subsidies	907	8,119
Estimated payables	5,966	2,395
Other payables	16	29
Total	3,017,149	3,415,958

The payables to suppliers represent expected payments in respect of ceded receivables from the Company's clients under non-recourse factoring and the aggregate amount of ceded receivables under recourse factoring.

The received advances represent the amounts collected from the customers of the Company's clients which were not accurately set off against the ceded receivables at the balance sheet date. The nature of factoring services requires that payables be paid immediately after a legal claim has been made by the client.

The year-on-year changes in trade payables are largely attributable to the cessation, that is, non-financing of ceded receivables of one of the major clients.

Other operating payables are settled within 14 days. The Company records no overdue payables.

Compared to 2004, the Company generated lower income, primarily due to the strengthening competition on the factoring market, as well as the banking sector pushing down the prices for factoring services.

The financial result was primarily impacted by foreign exchange rate gains and losses of CZK 148 thousand (2004: CZK 3,506 thousand), and the balance of spot and swap transactions during the year of CZK 972 thousand (2004: CZK 361 thousand) and fees to banks for bank guarantees, guarantee statements, loans and transaction payments of CZK 15,404 thousand (2004: CZK 16,873 thousand).

4.14 Due and Deferred Income Tax

Due tax	8,244	13,102
Additional tax assessment/tax returned for the prior period	0	6
Total	8,244	13,108

The tax charge for the accounting period can be compared to the profit per the income statement as follows:

CZK thousand	31 Dec 2005	31 Dec 2004
Profit before tax	7,074	35,729
Tax at the local income tax rate of 26% (2004: 28%)	1,839	10,004

Impact of the change in the tax rate on the deferred tax	-22	101
Total income tax on ordinary and extraordinary activities	1,442	19,769

The effective tax rate is 20.4 percent (2004: 55 percent).

The change of the effective tax rate is principally attributable to the change in the deferred tax arising from provisions against receivables. In 2004, the deferred tax arising from tax non-deductible provisions was reversed on the grounds of the anticipated tax non-deductibility of the provisions, while they were re-recognised in 2005 (refer to Note 3.11).

The total deferred tax asset as of 31 December 2005 amounted to CZK 6,814 thousand.
